HOUSE

Mr. Goss said that the committee was the same as the one who ordered; they made the investigation, but were not authorized to report it at any time, and the call for their report was never reached; if it had been, they were prepared to report a bill on the subject—all this committee to report at once.

Mr. Burnet—I am agreed to that.

The Speaker announced the pending business to be the election of a Printer.

On motion of Mr. Phelps there was a call of the House.

Mr. Anderson, of Mo., moved that the House resolve itself into a committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, and take up the post office appropriation bill. Estimating the damages at 6 per cent, on the sum due the contractors, the amount is $1,000 a day.

Mr. Washburn thought that the House had better then take up the appropriation bill.

Mr. Anderson's motion was disagreed to by 3 majority.

The Speaker requested the Tellers to resume their places at the desk to record votes for Printer.

Mr. Hill moved to adjourn.

Mr. Morris, of Ill., said the Democrats were willing to take a vote for Printer tomorrow, and not before.

The motion to adjourn was supported by only 28 votes.

Mr. Barksdale proposed that, by general consent, the subject be passed over till to-morrow at 1 o'clock.

Mr. Sherman would object if this was the general understanding.

This was acquiesced in.

ARRIVAL OF THE BOHEMIA
PENNSYLVANIA, Feb. 14.
The steamer Bohemia has arrived with latest dates from Europe.

The Prince of Orange was on a visit to Windsor Castle.

The London Times is an editorial expressing the present position of the San Juan difficulty. It says: "We have reasons to thank that the proposals made to the Americans are such as may fairly satisfy both countries. Instead of standing out for the Rosario channel and the whole group of islands as against the Debaro channel, and none of them, a third channel is proposed for the boundary line, which will not only evade the disputed course, but will leave the Americans in possession of the largest square of the disputed territory. This channel in its course cuts off the Island of San Juan alone to the west, and consequently leaves us with the Island only, while the Americans will retain the remainder. So considerable is fact, the concession thus made, that we believe the American government will be asked to give us the whole of a certain coast of land, which the 43d parallel now cuts in two. We do hope this reasonable proposal will be accepted."

The riotous proceedings at the Church of St. George, in East-London, reached a most disgraceful height on Sunday, the 23d ult. The church was crowded with a noisy mob, who not only prevented the services from being performed, but endeavored to demolish the altar, and infested in the past-time of throwing about cushions, prayer books, &c.

The officials of the Church were treated with personal violence. Considerable property was destroyed. The matter had claimed the attention of both houses of Parliament, and the Government had promised measures to put a stop to the disgraceful proceedings.

PRAYER.—The Paris Univers is suppressed. The Moniteur, in publishing the decree of suppression, says, among the reasons for the measure is the irritating controversy of the journal, by which religious opinion was discredited, the country agitated, and the fundamental basis on which the relations between the Church and Civil society are established undermined.

It is stated that the immediate offense which led to the suppression of the Univers was the publication, on the 29th, of an encyclical letter of the Pope to the Arch Bishops and Bishops, in which the motives of his refusal to accept the adhesion of the Emperor to give up the Roman.

Other journals had been forbidden to publish the letter.

The correspondent of a religious periodical had received a second warning. The Moniteur, of the 31st ult., says, the Government had only disposed of the irritating character of that controversy on religious questions. The Universe having been suppressed, violent articles in reply to its provocation are henceforth without motive and without excuse.

The whole press will understand that these grave questions must be discussed with that quietness and moderation which are required by the interests of the public peace and respect for religion.

A medal was about to be struck at the Paris mint to commemorate the signing of the treaty of Commerce between England and France.

Orders were received at Toulon to prepare the plated frigate Glorie for sea, with the utmost despatch; she carries 36 rated guns and a steel prop of enormous dimensions; her destination was unknown.

The Paris Journal publishes a despatch from Chambery, which states that on the 29th, the party hostile to the accession of Savoy to France made a demonstration—Nearly 250 persons assembled from all parts of Savoy at the request of the rebels at Chambery, and asked information from the government, as to whether it was the intention of the King of Sardinia to cede the province to France?

The Governor replied that the King would not willingly concede the province. The statement was received with loud cheers of "Viva l'ROI." The population of Chambery were complete strangers to the demonstration which took place in their streets, and it was inferred that their feelings were consequently sympathetic with France.

The Paris Bourse was greatly depressed, and a fall of 1 per cent had taken place—T.L.C. is ascribed to the breach between the Emperor and Pope.

The Swiss Federal Council had drawn up a circular dispatch, expressing alarm at the prospect of the annexation of Savoy and Nice to France.

ITALY.—Count Cavour's contemplated visit to Paris and London is temporarily postponed.

The Neapolitan General Ascoli had demanded reinforcements. It was stated that the troops on the frontier were to be increased.

AUSTRIA.—It was considered not unlikely that a state of siege would be proclaimed in Hungary as well as Venetia, before long. Agitation continually prevailed at Venetia. In the course of one day seven officers were attacked and wounded in Venetia, and the cavalry were ordered to clear the streets. Numerous individuals had been arrested at Venice for insulting persons promenading, while military music was being performed.

The authorities of Venetia had been acquainted with the determination of Austria to retain that place and defend it to the utmost.

The Indian Overland Mail from California, Dec. 23d and Hong Kong Dec. 13th, have been delivered. Their news was generally anticipated.

The death of Nana Sahib was regarded as almost certain; he is said to have died of fever, and that his chief adviser in the Cawnpore massacre survived him but a few days.

The Hong Kong correspondent of the Times says, the only point of any importance was the intended establishment at Swatow of British and American Consuls—the latter under the new American treaty, and the latter claiming the most favored nation clause under the supplementary treaty.

Resolved, That Freedom is national, and that Slavery is sectional and cannot exist without the protection of positive municipal law; and that we are inexorably opposed to the protection thereof by Congressional legislation in the Territories of the U. S. contrary to the will of the people of the Territories.

Resolved, That we brand the doctrine of the Constitution of the United States, of itself, carries slavery anywhere, as a lie told on the fathers of our country, whose intellect framed and whose patriotism defended that time honored palladium of our liberties.

Resolved, That the Union of the States, and the rights thereof as reserved by our Federal Constitution, now and shall, at all hazards, be preserved; and that we regard any and all persons, whether in the shape of the Spanish minimum will yet touch 100 per cent. The pressure, however, is likely to be more sharp than permanent.

MAILED, Thursday.—Yesterday a considerable Moorish force attacked the right wing of the Spanish encampment, but were repelled. The Spanish then made an attack on the Monish lines, threw the Moorish disorder, and took their position, which they maintained to the end of the fight. The Spanish artillery caused immense losses to the enemy, estimated at 2,000, while their own losses were but 200.

The victory was complete.

The Lord Norrige says, the encyclical letter was drawn up by the Pope and Cardinal Antonelli with the greatest secrecy.

Gen. Garibaldi arrived at Milan, on the 28th ult., from Como with his bride.

A Turin letter says, the military ties between Sardinia and Central Italy are very positively and openly being drawn closer, and they almost authorize the assumption in Congress who, by word or deed, declare their intentions to dissolve the other, as traitors to the welfare of our Republic.

Resolved, That we are in favor of "land for the landless and homes for the homeless," and therefore advocate the passage of a Homestead law, granting to actual settlers the public lands, in limited parcels.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the Central Route for a Pacific Railroad, and that Congress should take immediate steps for building the same.

Resolved, That Col. Henry S. Lane is our first choice for Governor, but that we will cheerfully support any conservative man who may be nominated by the State Convention.

Resolved, That the Hungarian Protestant delegation left Vienna without obtaining an audience of the Emperor. His Majesty offered to admit to his presence two members of the delegation separately and as private individuals; but this was declined.

The Hungarians demanded the restoration of all the rights and privileges of their Church, and will accept nothing less. If the Emperor complies, it would be tantamount to a confession that the Austrian policy, for the last few years, had completely failed. One side of the other must, in the end, give way, and a violent struggle is feared.

Resolved, That Douglass and Minnesota—the Democratic papers in Minnesota—the Winona Democrat and the St. Anthony Express—say that Mr. Douglass has nothing to hope for from the Charleston delegation from that State. The editor of the St. Paul Pioneer, the central Douglass organ, was a candidate for Charleston honors, but was defeated by decided majority.
